SPORTS MAUI BASEBALL

(Special Bulletin Wireles)

WAILUKU, Maui, July 27.—The Sunday games were fully up to the standard of the season. The Wailuku scored seven against none for the Stars. The second game was fast and furious, the Kahului defeating the Healanis by a score of three to one in an 11-inning game.

Big Yacht Race To Hilo On Tomorrow At 10

Tomorrow at 10 o'clock, all of the Trans-Pacific yachts, with two or possibly four of the local fleet, start from the bell buoy in a race for the whistling buoy at Hilo—a race in which the Hawaii will have the chance of a lifetime to redeem lost prestige, and to prove that loginess and iron punch ballast lost for her long leg across the ocean from San Pedro.

The race is a no-headwind affair, proposed by Commodore Sinclair of the yacht Lurline, and it is managed by the Hawaiian Yacht Club. The course will be up the first channel, to windward all the way, to the east and windward side of Molokai and Maui, thence south on a reach to a line drawn from the whistling buoy, title harbor, to the Wailuku Mill.

This will give all sorts of sailing and it is felt that it will conclusively test the powers of the various craft in all sorts of sailing, such as is not gotten in the trans-ocean sail.

With the possibility that the yachts will arrive at night in mind, the committee has arranged light signals by which the craft may be distinguished.

The entries will be the Lurline, winner of the First and Second Trans-Pacific Races; Gwendolyn II, second-place boat in the recent race; Lady Maud and the Hawaii, third- and fourth-place boats, the latter the hope of the Islanders; the Kamehameha, one of the fastest among local craft; the Gladys, which has shown up well in many sails in local waters; and possibly La Paloma, which sailed in the race from the Coast two years ago; and the Helene. However, it is not thought probable that La Paloma will be in it.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

Eddie Fernandez is probably the most remarkable ball-player in this city, and possibly the best man who has ever been reared on a Honolulu diamond. Figures show that he is the best batter in the local list, and he is the backbone of the Jewels, who have been winning things this season. Yesterday he played 29 innings, all told, and was good at the end of the 29th.

Some injustice has been done Charlie Albright by the statement that he made the decision where Seegar was called out at home in the eighth yesterday. He was not the man who called the decision, which, however right Lemon was, has come in for so many swift roasts.

The batting bunch which the All-Hawaiian had together yesterday probably represents the strongest team which has ever been bunched together in Honolulu.

Kennedy scored two runs Saturday by a three-bagger, but was done up by some very poor support.

The Honolulu Plantation team defeated the Ewas at baseball yesterday by a score of 7 to 6.

Leslie pitched 16 innings of ball yesterday, without getting to the bad side.

Bill Vannatta had an off-day Saturday; so did Dick Reuter.
